PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTIONS

The Hon D A Feetham

I have the honour to move the motions standing in my name which reads as follows:

"THIS HOUSE: Welcomes the introduction of the Disability Act in 2017 as a significant breakthrough in enhancing the rights of disabled people and is committed to continuing to break down barriers by constantly striving to secure equal opportunities

Consonant with that aim this House:

- (a) Welcomes the assurances of the Minister with responsibility for Social Security in answer to parliamentary questions from the GSD Opposition that he is prepared to consider placing on a statutory footing the qualifying test of the
- (b) Considers that a wider review of the law and administrative practice relating to the grant of disability benefit;

RESOLVES that that review should be conducted by a Working Group set up by the Minister with responsibility for Social Security with cross party participation, to report to this House with recommendations within the next six months."
